They charged the Defendant Richard Moſſe, otherwiſe Colſtynſocke, with Breach of an Injunction in a former Suit, and with bringing divers Actions of Treſpaſs in the Halmote Court. The Pleadings chiefly concern the Legitimacy of Richard Moſſe, otherwiſe Colſtynſocke, as Son of Peter Colſtynſocke; and they relate alſo to the Cuſtoms of the Manor or Lordſhip by Surrender, and to the Juriſdiction of the Court of Halmote, whereof Richard Harpur of Cheſter was then Steward, and Sir John Savage, Knight, was Steward of the Honor of Halton. There is a Commiſſion which directs the Examination of Witneſſes, and the Production of all Court Rolls, Evidences, and Writings, and particularly a Court Roll of the Reign of King Henry the 8th, alledged to contain a Surrender made by Peter Colſtynſocke, and defaced or altered on a Search made by Thomas Bulle. The Interrogatories and Depoſitions relate chiefly to the Cuſtoms of Fines and Surrenders, particularly as to the Demiſe of Copyhold Lands by Will, and of the Admittance thereto, and alſo to the Juriſdiction of the Halmote Court as to Actions of Treſpaſs and Plaints for Recovery of Lands; and therein alſo of the Baſtardy of Richard Colſtonſocke, otherwiſe Moſſe, and of the Lands and Tenements claimed by him, particularly Sotherons and Barkersfeld. There is a ſpecial Certificate, dated 1555, ſhewing that Richard Colſtonſocke, otherwiſe Moſſe, and John Brocke, had reaped and taken from the Premiſes Corn and other Produce ſown by Elyn Colſtynſocke, which the Commiſſioners ordered to be reſtored, and the ſaid Richard juſtified the taking thereof as adjudged to him by the Steward of the Halmote; and that the Commiſſioners had taken Bond of the ſaid Richard and John for their Appearance, till it could be aſcertained if the ſaid Richard had recovered the Premiſes as alledged. Then follow various Copies of Court Rolls touching the Cuſtoms of Overwhitley Lordſhip, and divers Inquiſitions and Miniſters Accounts of Meſſuages and Lands there in the Time of King Richard the 1st, Richard the 2d, Henry the 4th, Edward the 4th, Henry the 7th, and Henry the 8th, and ſhewing various Surrenders and Admittances to the Lands in Diſpute.	—	—

The Evidence goes to the Cuſtom of the Manor, in Reference to Sureties bound for Purchaſe Money, and ſhews that if they were not ſaved harmleſs, then the Purchaſer had no Intereſt in the Lands, but only the Sureties and their Heirs.	—	—
